The Time is Now - Week 1: The End of All Things...

1 Peter 4:7-11, 2 Peter 3:3-10

The End of All Things...

The end of all things is near. Therefore be alert and of sober mind so that you may pray. Above all, love each other deeply, because love covers over a multitude of sins. Offer hospitality to one another without grumbling. Each of you should use whatever gift you have received to serve others, as faithful stewards of God's grace in its various forms. If anyone speaks, they should do so as one who speaks the very words of God. If anyone serves, they should do so with the strength God provides, so that in all things God may be praised through Jesus Christ. To him be the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen. (1 Peter 4:7-11 NIV)

The Last Days:

How should we live in light of the fact that we're living in the _____?

When the season is on the line, you play with a sense of _____.

What are the Last Days?

The last days are the period of time from Jesus' arrival on earth in the first century, through to the time when he will come again.

See: 1 Peter 1:20, Acts 2:16-17, Hebrews 1:1-2

There will always be people who _____ and _____.

1. By virtue of being the time _____ Jesus walked on earth,
2. And in the time when the _____ is being poured out His people,
3. And the time that we _____ wait for his return -
4. We are in fact the last days.

How do we live?

We need to live with our _____ focused on _____.

"This is the way I would talk about the coming of the Lord today. It is just around the corner. The end is near indeed. If anyone dallies with sin and the world, thinking, "I have lots of time," he plays the fool. The Judge is at the door. And the time remaining should be spent in earnest prayer that we not be made drunk and hard by the cares and pleasures of this world." (John Piper)

As you go about your days, as you live your life, are you living with Jesus Christ as your _____?

1. Do we depend on Him through prayer?
2. Are we consistently demonstrating love for one another?
3. Are we devoting ourselves, and the gifts God has given us to serve His Kingdom?

Are we ready for Royalty?

Peter's message to us that we're going to unpack over these coming weeks is:

1. The King is coming _____.
2. So don't just sit on your hands and wait.
3. And don't live like the Devil and then beg forgiveness later.

Live like royalty is coming!
